

Providenciales, April 26 2010 – Windvibes 2010, the 4th annual Kiteboarding Tournament is scheduled for Sunday May 9th, at Long Bay beach near the Shore Club.

Kiteboarding is the new big sport. Combine a kite, board, wind and water, and you're flying!

24 local kiteboarders have signed up to go head to head in a variety of different disciplines. Events will include Course Racing, Jumping, Speed, and Freestyle. There'll also be a Kiteboarders Vs. Spectators tug-of-war.

Shade tents will be on the beach for spectators. Cold drinks and BBQ food will be available throughout the day. This is the perfect event for a family beach day!

Kick off is at 9am with the finals starting around 2pm onwards. Come one, come all, check out the wind and feel the vibes!

For more information call 342-2941 or stop by Blue for more event information.